

KONOPISTE CASTLE

► KONOPISTE CASTLE

Konopiste is lovely hunting chateau located about 45 km south-east of Prague. It was founded in the 13th century and it has become famous as the last residence of Archduke Franz Ferdinand d'Este, the successor to the Austro-Hungarian throne, whose assassination in Sarajevo in 1914 triggered World War I. Visitors can observe the residential rooms of Franz Ferdinand, a large collection of antlers, or an armoury with medieval weapons. Guided, entrance fee included.

Price per person 1800 CZK
Duration 6 hours
Date Friday, April 20, 09:00

Including A/C coach transportation, English speaking guide, entrance fees and lunch.

