

Code of Conduct

ISHLT is a listening organization focused on its participants. ISHLT2023 is designed to increase interaction, engagement, collaboration, connectivity, and community, in a fun and safe learning environment.

We value the participation of each member of the community and endeavor to deliver an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Conference participants are expected to conduct themselves with integrity, courtesy and respect for others and maintain the highest level of professionalism at all conference programs and events, whether officially sponsored by ISHLT or not.

All attendees, guests, speakers, organizers, volunteers, partners, vendors, and staff at any ISHLT event are required to observe the following Code of Conduct.

ISHLT is committed to providing a harassment-free conference experience for everyone, regardless of age, gender, gender expression, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, place of origin, race, or religion. We do not tolerate harassment of conference participants in any form.

All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of diverse backgrounds and cultures. Sexual language and imagery are not appropriate for the conference.

Be kind to others. Do not insult or defame participants. Harassment in any form, sexist, racist, or exclusionary jokes are not condoned at ISHLT Events. Participants violating these rules may be asked to leave the conference at the sole discretion of ISHLT. Thank for helping to make this a welcoming event for all.
